Re: Tax Engagement

Dear _____:

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of my engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services I will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, I ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

I will prepare your 2007 federal and requested state income tax returns from information that you will furnish me. I will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. I will furnish you with questionnaires and/or worksheets to guide you in gathering the necessary information. Your use of such forms will assist in keeping pertinent information from being overlooked.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

My work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. I will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the income tax returns.

I will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, I will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible.

The filing deadline for the tax return is April 15, 2008. In order to meet this filing deadline, the information needed to complete the return should be received in this office as soon as possible. If reasonably possible, I will complete the returns by the deadline. If we are not able to meet the filing deadline, I will prepare an extension to postpone the filing deadline six months.

If an extension of the time is required, any tax due with this return must be paid with that extension. Any amounts not paid by the filing deadline may be subject to interest and late payment penalties.

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. If you would like information on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact me.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such governmental tax examination, I will be available, upon request, to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

After I look over your prior years' returns and this years's organizer, I will provide you with a quoted price for these services. I will proceed with these services once you have authorized me to do so. My bills are due when you receive them. I may bill you on an interim basis prior to completion of this engagement.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter in the space indicated and return it to my office. However, if there are other tax returns you expect me to prepare, such as gift and/or property, please inform me by noting so just below your signature at the end of the returned copy of this letter.

I want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Sincerely,

David M. Kaufmann, C.P.A.
Enclosure

The foregoing is in accordance with my understanding of your engagement to provide tax services. The terms described in this letter are acceptable and are hereby agreed to.
